Parrot Heads in Paradise State of the Phlock - 2013

After all the hoopla surrounding the 20th Anniversary of Meeting of the Minds in 2011, the year 2012 may be remembered by some as an "ordinary" year around the Parrot Head Nation ... As if anyone could ever describe what Parrot Head Clubs do as being "ordinary"!

Is it considered "ordinary" for a group of common folks like us to raise $3.46 million for various charitable causes as we did in 2012? I think not! Would anyone consider it "ordinary" for a group of common folks like us to donate, out of our personal time, almost 200,000 hours to charitable, civic and environmental projects in our local communities as Parrot Head Clubs did in 2012? Doubtful!!

As always, we worked hard and we played hard ... We had a lot of fun, we cavorted with old friends, we made new friends and, in what is becoming a distressingly common occurrence, we bid farewell to far too many beloved friends. What we most assuredly did, in a big way, was make a difference ... a difference in our communities, a difference in our environment and a difference in the lives of our fellow man as we continue to grow and prosper.

Marshall Chapman's new album - Blaze of Glory

Co-produced with Michael Utley

Todd Snider among special guests; Will Kimbrough, Casey Wood, and Jim Mayer.

Marshall Chapman has been making records for longer than most of today's indie rockers have been alive. Blaze of Glory is her 13th release; her seventh on Tallgirl Records.

At age 64, Chapman is, as author Peter Guralnick put it, "A force of nature." Some might argue she's even picking up steam. In the last two and a half years, she's had a book published, seen her musical Good Ol' Girls open off-Broadway, acted in a movie (playing Gwyneth Paltrow's road manager in Country Strong), and recorded two albums — Big Lonesome, and the soon-to-be-released Blaze of Glory.

Many are hailing Blaze of Glory as Marshall's masterpiece. Singer/songwriter Tom Russell says it's "Her best yet," and Rodney Crowell concurs, calling it "The most satisfying record yet from the "Goddess of Tall." Available at www.TallGirl.com

My Key West Kitchen

This new book is a culinary love letter to Key West from award-winning chef Norman Van Aken and his son Justin. Key West is where Norman first discovered his passion for cooking, and the unique cultural makeup of the island still influences the Van Aken's cuisine today. Follow Norman and Justin as they stroll through Key West, re-creating dishes from little joints and restaurants both past and present. Organized by Key West neighborhoods, the chapters include "Duval and Downtown Crawl", "Places in the Hoods", "Places on the Water", "Around Town These Days", and "La Bodega." Now all food lovers can enjoy the diverse flavors of Key West. #10443 $29.95

MARGARITAVILLE GIVES BACK

Sarah Sheer teaches all levels of Spanish at Key West High School and uses a variety of strategies to get even the most advanced students actively engaged. She keeps her finger on the Parrot Head pulse as well working part time at the Margaritaville Café. In January her students were selling raffle tickets to raise dollars for the Key West Rotary Dental program. The raffle prizes included among other things an automobile; a 2013 Nissan Versa to be exact. Sarah's students visited the Margaritaville Store in January when we were sponsoring a Wounded Warrior Event in the café. We purchased a ticket and in typical kindness Karma fashion won the raffle.

At first, we discussed just what we could do with the car to be positive in the community, such as advertise some groups that need support, or sell the car and donate the money or raffle the car and use the money for a specific give back to the community purpose.

Ultimately we realized that the reason we purchased the ticket to begin with was in keeping with our goal to give back to the community by supporting the Rotary Club's efforts. In February, Key West Margaritaville's GM Denise DiSalvo attended the Rotary Club luncheon and gave the key that was presented to us at the meeting back to the Club and received a standing ovation.

The raffle alone brought in more money for the Key West Rotary projects than any other year...with us returning the car, it was even more!! Denise says, "I wanted everyone to know what transpired ...I felt really proud to represent Margaritaville."
